Announcing SEHTA as a Media Partner at 2019 Future Healthcare 2019

SEHTA is proud to announce that we are now Media Partners for the Future Healthcare 2019 Exhibition & Conference, taking place on 18 – 19 March 2019, Olympia, London.

Dr David Parry, CEO at SEHTA will be speaking at the event on “Penetrating the system: guiding innovative health technology SMEs on how to partner with the NHS”.

Future Healthcare in association with UKIHMA - a strategic partner of Healthcare UK, a UK government trade promotion organisation jointly funded by the Department for International Trade, the Department of Health and NHS England, is the UK's only exhibition and conference showcasing healthcare products and services to a global audience. Taking place at Olympia London from 18-19 March 2019, Future Healthcare gathers more than 4,000 buyers from 65 countries for two days of education, networking and cross border purchasing.

Hosting 4,000 buyers from 65 countries, Future Healthcare 2019 is a unique opportunity for healthcare products and service providers to showcase their solutions on a global scale.

South East Health Technologies Alliance

South East Health Technologies Alliance (SEHTA) are a health technology network organisation, providing business support for the benefit of our members who represent health technology SMEs, health professionals, care providers and academia.

Founded in 2005 as an organisation to understand and meet the needs of small healthcare businesses, we are one of the largest networks of individuals from Academia, Business and Care/Clinicians (with over 1,000 members), with the purpose of improving the health and care of the citizens of the UK as well as increasing wealth. We do this by offering support on a one-to-one basis through our business support services and one-to-many through workshops, training and other events.
